WOMAN'S DAY AT THE CHAUTAUQUA A BIG SUCCESS

A Very Delightful Musical Program Was the Evening Feature.

Lawrence Stringer and Castle Square Entertainers.

TWO INTERESTING NUMBERS.

The ladies of Paducah did credit to themselves yesterday when they furnished one of the most delightful musical programs ever heard in this city, at the Chautauqua grounds. Miss Virginia Newell is to be highly commended for the efforts in coaching the singers, who sang most beautifully. Piano and instrumental music were also excellent numbers on the program. The delicious lunch served by the women's club was patronized by the patrons during the evening, and the management of the association is most grateful to these women.

This afternoon at 3:30 the Castle Square Entertainers will make their first appearance. This quartette is equal in every respect to the famous Parland-Newell company, which closed their engagement Tuesday night. They have entertained in every state in the Union and received the highest applause. Their company consists of a first-class male quartette, an entertaining reader, a superb whistling soloist, an Irish monologist and two pianists, and with this attractive program the amphitheater should be packed.

Tonight at 8 the Castle Square Entertainers will render a musical prelude, followed by an address of Hon. Lawrence B. Stringer, of Illinois, on "The Spirit of the Pioneer." Senator Stringer has made campaign speeches since the early age of 18, and at the age of 23 was elected member of the Illinois house of representatives. In his native state he has been given the same prefix to his name as Lincoln and that is "Honest Lawrence." His voice is excellent, his manner graceful and natural and he is considered by all an orator of rare ability.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 the Castle Square Entertainers will render a few of their choice selections followed by Mr. Ash Davis, the cartoonist entertainer. Mr. Davis has the art of drawing pictures at the same time entertaining his audience with delightful humorous talks.

Tomorrow night a full and complete concert will be given by the Castle Square Entertainers. The management seems very much encouraged over the splendid attendance of the citizens and those missing these entertainments are indeed the losers.

EXTERIOR WORK ON THE SKYSCRAPER FINISHED.

The exterior marble work on the ten-story building of the City National bank, Fourth street and Broadway, was completed today and the brick work is under way. The Tennessee marble extends to the third floor and from there up terra cotta brick will be used. The building will be one of the most attractive in the state on its completion early in 1911.

INGLESIDE REBEKAHS ELECT TWO NEW OFFICERS.

Semi-annual election of officers by Ingleside lodge of Daughters of Rebekah was held last night at the Three Links building. The new officers will be installed at the next regular meeting. Only two officers are elected for the term of six months as the remainder held over for a year. Mrs. Clara Maxwell was elected noble grand and Miss Beattie Lou Watts, vice grand.

PADUCAH TEACHERS GO TO MICHIGAN NORMAL SCHOOL.

Twelve Paducah teachers will leave Saturday morning for Ypsilanti, Mich., where they will attend the summer session of one of the Michigan state normal schools. In the party will be: Misses Lillie Burdine, Susan Atchison, Belle Ford, Catherine Thomas, Floyd Swift, Mary Bondurant, Ethel Mitchell, Rosa Flournoy, Mabel Mitchell, Blanche Mooney, Mollie Brown Stevenson and Lucy Moore. They will be joined by Miss Maud Bryant, of Memphis, and Miss Mary Kellner, of Henderson. Six weeks will be spent at the normal school. By going north, the teachers have the advantage of securing a cooler climate, which is more conducive to better studying.

Session of Congress Ending Establishes Appropriation Record, and Was Wordiest

Ten Million, and Over, Words Fall From the Lips of the Congressmen and the Senators.

Washington, June 23.—This session of congress is now ready to adjourn. Besides spending a billion and seventy-four millions of money, it is the wordiest congress of record. The record already has reached nine thousand pages, approximately ten million eight hundred thousand words. The bills introduced in the house were 27,065, and the senate 8,800. Two hundred and nineteen bills for the public good were passed; congress ratified three treaties; and confirmed 10,800 of Taft's appointments. Two senators and five representatives died during the session, which commenced December 6. The deaths since the last session of congress included Senators McLaughlin, of Mississippi, and Johnson, of North Dakota; Representatives Loveling, of Massachusetts; Griggs, of Georgia; Perkins, of New York; Dearmond, of Missouri, and Lassiter, of Virginia.

SENATOR BURTON THREATENS A TWO DAYS' SPEECH.

Washington, June 23.—When Senator Burton, of Ohio, arose in the senate today to make a "few remarks" on the bill to create mountain forest reserves, he had in mind a speech to last two days. He doesn't like the bill and gave notice he hoped to induce congress to lay the bill over till next session. Representative weeks, of Massachusetts, issued the ultimatum that congress cannot adjourn until the bill passes. The statesmen face a peculiar problem: Burton is filibustering against, and Weeks for the measure.

The only questions are whether Burton's powers will be equal to the strain, whether the senate decides upon a night session. In the latter contingency it would be an over-long speech instead of two speeches.

The bill proposes that the federal government co-operate with the state, and private land owners in maintaining forest reserves in the southern Appalachian and White mountains. McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft recommended the passage of the bills.

Taft Names Consuls.

Washington, June 23.—Nominations sent to the senate by the president today include the following: Consul—Thomas R. Wallace; Martinique, F. W. I.; William Coffin, Jerusalem, Turkey.

Infant's Death.

Death visited the home of Mr and Mrs. James Walton of O'Brien's addition, June 21, claiming the only child, a bright boy 10 months old. John A. Doran Walton. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. R. W. Chiles. Little friends, Misses Edna Ford and Mamie Sickles, Masters Malcom and Cecil Ford acted as pallbearers, and the body was interred at Crab Orchard Grove cemetery.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE THROUGH TO EVANSVILLE.

The new telephone line of the East Tennessee Telephone company to Evansville has been completed, giving the patrons two direct lines, while a third line is under construction. The new line connects with the exchanges in Livingston county, giving a more complete service. The cable crosses the Ohio river at Birdsville.

Another Theory in Pool Road Murder

Another theory as to the identification of the red haired boy victim of the Pool road murder mystery has been advanced. A gentleman who did not give his name, called at Nance & Rogers' undertaking parlors yesterday afternoon and said that if he was not badly mistaken he had seen the boy here on several occasions. He said from his appearance he resembled a shantyboatman, and he had seen him several times

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperatures for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

RECEPTION ROOM FOR YOUNG MEN

WILL BE ARRANGED IN BROAD-WAY METHODIST CHURCH.

For the benefit of the young men of the city, the board of stewards of the Broadway Methodist church last night decided to install a club and reception room in the basement of the church. The question of establishing and equipping a room has been under consideration for some time, and at the meeting last night the final action was taken by the board.

The establishment of the room will be a social feature for the young men, and will give them a pleasant place to spend their spare hours reading and studying. The room will be furnished with substantial furniture, and will be equipped with standard magazines and reading matter. It is also probable that a military company will be organized.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL IS CLOSED.

Last night the revival at the Cumberland Presbyterian church was closed. The series of meetings met with good success, and the attendance was good despite the fact that the weather was warm. The pastor, the Rev. D. W. Fooks, was assisted by the Rev. T. C. Wilson, who left this morning for Christian county, where he will begin a revival. There were several additions to the congregation of the church.

SIKESTON MOTOR PARTY HERE EN ROUTE HOME.

On their return trip home Mayor E. J. Malone and his party, of Sikeston, Mo., reached Paducah last night from Tennessee and spent the evening in the city. Several weeks ago they passed through Paducah in a Packard touring car en route to Tennessee. The entire trip was made without a serious accident, and was enjoyed by the party. Several hours were spent this morning riding around Paducah, and the motorists were pleased with the city and the smooth streets. At 10 o'clock the party left for Sikeston, where they expect to arrive this afternoon. In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Malone, J. R. Malone and W. B. Malone.

RED MEN FROM PRINCETON LODGE

JUDGE CROSS RETURNS FROM HIS MISSIONARY WORK.

Reorganization of the Bobohana tribe No. 192 of the Order of Red Men at Princeton, Ky., will take place July 7. City Judge D. A. Cross, of Paducah, returned last night from Princeton, where he went in the capacity of special deputy of the great sachem to effect a new charter for the lodge and straighten out the tangled condition of the Princeton war whoopers. The lodge was organized a short time ago, but had practically disbanded. It will be reorganized with renewed vigor.

Another Theory in Pool Road Murder

with a red haired girl whom he took to be the boy's twin sister. The police and detectives are trying to solve the puzzle—his name. From all indications the boy was a total stranger in this part of the country. There have been no new developments in the case since the arrest of Thomas Farrin and Guy Dean. The authorities are endeavoring to locate Mrs. Dora Blackwell in time for the examining trial of Farrin and Dean set for next Wednesday morning in police court. She is thought to be somewhere in Tennessee. Both sides, it is said, will be ready to go into trial Wednesday.

JAMES MILLER'S BODY WAS FOUND BELOW BROOKPORT

Mussle Fisherman Takes it out of River at Seven Mile Creek.

Miller Was Drunk, Probably Fell From Skiff.

AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATING.

Search for the supposedly drowned body of James Miller below Brookport yesterday afternoon was rewarded by its recovery. It was taken from the Ohio at the mouth of Seven Mile creek, two miles below Brookport by John Thompson, a mussle fisherman, and turned over to the authorities there.

The theory of Chief of Police Henry Singery, of Paducah, is that Miller was not murdered and thrown into the river by a negro, as was first thought, but accidentally drowned while attempting to land at Brookport last Saturday at midnight after leaving Paducah in a skiff. Miller worked on Owen's farm for Ed Medley in Illinois, opposite Paducah. He was last seen in Paducah late Saturday night, when he staggered to the river at the foot of Kentucky avenue. "Snake" Wade, colored, was employed by Miller to carry a half-gallon of whiskey to the skiff, and the colored night watchman at the St. Bernard coal docks at the foot of Kentucky avenue says that Miller got into the skiff alone and was crazed with liquor. Wade left the river and returned to town. The watchman says as Miller pulled out from shore he shouted and yelled and as he was afflicted with rheumatism in his lower limbs the police have formed the theory that he toppled from the skiff near the Illinois side, as the skiff was found Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock near Brookport with Miller's belongings.

Coroner Thomas L. Wallace at Metropolis held an inquest over the body yesterday afternoon. There was a dent over the left eye as if he had been struck by a blunt weapon. The body was badly decomposed, as if it had been in the water several days. The verdict returned by the coroner's jury was that Miller came to his death by drowning. A report that Miller was seen quarreling at Brookport with an unknown negro is being investigated and Brookport officers are looking for the negro, although they have but a meagre description. Miller's home was in Crawfordsville, Ind., and he had been employed on Owen's farm about four months.

200 HOGSHEADS OF TOBACCO SOLD THIS WEEK.

Twenty-five hogsheads of independent tobacco from Calloway county were sold at public auction at the Western District warehouse this morning by Mr. C. O. Brown. Prices ranged from 11 to 15 cents. This makes a total of about 200 hogsheads that have been sold during the past week. Mr. Brown stated today that the stock of tobacco was getting very low and the sales of the season were practically closed, although there will be some few offerings later.

HOLD THE TRAIN WHILE WEDDING IS CELEBRATED.

While the passenger train waited, Miss N. L. Stapp and Mr. C. H. Tomlinson, popular young people of Woodville, were married last night at Kevil by the Rev. Mr. Ware. The couple drove to Kevil from Woodville and rushed to the parsonage where the ceremony was performed. Just as the ceremony was begun the Cairo passenger train approached the station. Word was sent to hold the train, and it was ten minutes later when the bridal party boarded the train en route to Colorado, where the honeymoon will be spent.

BROWNE CASE TO THE JURY SOON

ATTORNEYS WILL FINISH ARGU- MENTS THIS AFTERNOON.

Chicago, June 23.—The case of Lee O'Neill Browne, may be in the hands of the jury before tonight. Attorney O'Donnell, concluded his address for the defense today and was followed by Attorney Forrest, representing Browne. States Attorney Wayman will sum up for the prosecution this afternoon.

The Development of Our Farms is the Most Imperative Problem Before the Country at Present

Brown, Head of New York
Central Railroad Warns Us
What We May Expect in a Few Years.

St. Paul, Minn., June 23.—The United States is facing the most serious crisis in its history, was the declaration of W. G. Browne, president of the New York Central, in an address before the convention of Minnesota state bankers today. He declared the food consumption of the nation was rapidly exceeding production; the gold production increasing so its purchasing power is being reduced, and that development of the farms was the most imperative problem before the nation. "If the converging lines of production and consumption in the United States continue to approach each other as they have during the last ten years," he said, "before the middle of the decade on which we have just entered is reached, the last vessel loaded with agricultural products will have left our shores; the last grain exporting elevator will stand empty, and this great nation, like those of the old world, will look with anxious eyes for a place to buy the necessities of life. When the day comes that this nation fails to produce sufficient food to supply its own people, what will be the cost of living in this country."

Wickliffe Has Some Excitement.

For a while it looked like there might be a lynching last night in Wickliffe, and several hundred men congregated eager to do the work. In fact, the word spread, to Cairo, and several people from Cairo rushed to Wickliffe in a gasoline launch. Yesterday a negro called at the residence of Alexander Hall and asked for a drink of water. His daughter went to the well, and it is said the negro followed her. She screamed, while the negro ran. Quickly a party of men captured the negro, and after beating him, placed him in jail to wait until night. The father of the girl explained to the threatened mob that the negro offered his daughter no insult, and the prisoner was released.

MUCH SATISFACTION OVER SECURING THE REV. TORREY

Much satisfaction has been expressed at the success of the Paducah Pastors' association in securing the Rev. R. A. Torrey, of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, to lead the revival which will be held in Paducah under the auspices of the association at the Auditorium rink, beginning October 2. It was stated erroneously yesterday that the revival would be held at the First Baptist church. The meetings will be under the auspices of the pastors' association. The revival will continue for four weeks.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FIGHT ARE PUSHED

NO DOUBT THAT IT WILL BE A GO.

Reno, Nev., June 23.—With Jeffries training here and Johnson due to arrive tomorrow, the work on the arena is progressing rapidly, and Governor Dickerson's promise not to interfere, it seems there's nothing to prevent the big fight. Both of the principals are perfectly conditioned. Rickard declares Hester's determination to pull off the Langford-Kitchel fight on the morning of the Fourth is another blow from the "Frisco" fight politicians and George Little against Johnson's manager. It is understood Johnson agreed to pay Little $4,000 on the original contract.

THE AUTOMOBILE FINALLY WINS ROOSEVELT OVER.

Oyster Bay, June 23.—Since his return home, Roosevelt has been completely won over to his big automobile and has deserted the horse as the best means of travel. Henceforth he will make the journeys from Sagamore Hill to his office in New York in his new machine.

HEATER'S BODY IS BROUGHT HOME

LIVINGSTON LAD WHO LOST HIS LIFE ON BATTLE SHIP.

The horribly mutilated body of Joseph Heater, Jr., 23 years old, of near Smithland, Ky., who with eight of his crew was killed on the United States battleship Charleston in an explosion in March at Cavite, Philippine Islands, arrived in Paducah last evening and was taken home at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the steamer Ohio by the father, Joseph N. Heater, a prominent farmer, living 7 miles east of Smithland.

At Nance & Rogers' morgue, where the body was held here awaiting the arrival of his father, the remains were viewed and were mangled beyond recognition.

Young Heater joined the navy three years ago and went aboard the battleship Denver at San Francisco, Cal., sailing to Hong Kong, China, where he remained until last year when the Denver went out of commission. On the Denver, Mr. Heater knew Munroe Nance, of Paducah, who was among the crew. Afterwards young Heater went on the Charleston and was at Cavite, P. I., where the explosion occurred during target practice. He and seven companions met instant death when a breach of a gun blew out. A young man from Cave-In-Rock, Ky., was among those killed and his body was shipped along with that of Heater.

The body was shipped by the American Express company, the expenses being defrayed by the war department. At the time of the explosion Congressman Ollie James wrote Heater's father informing him of it. Mr. Heater had received a letter from his son a few weeks before his death and he intimated that he was dissatisfied in the Philippines. The funeral and burial will be held at the home place tomorrow morning. Heater is survived by his mother and father and also four sisters and two brothers, Misses Lacie, Virgie, Vernie and Elsie Heater, and Messrs. Lem and Edmund Heater. The family is grief stricken over the horrible death.

TO ELECT NEW HEALTH OFFICER

BOARD OF HEALTH WILL MEET SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

City Health Officer Dr. H. Preston Sights' successor will be chosen by the board of health Saturday afternoon when the board meets at the city hall at 1:15 o'clock. It is rumored that applicants for the important office are Drs. O. R. Kidd, S. Z. Holland and W. T. Graves.

The general public is interested in the selection of a health officer and one who will display as much interest in his work and accomplish such good results as did the retiring officer, Dr. Sights. Friends of Drs. Kidd, Holland and Graves say that they will likely be candidates for the office and any selection from the three would be a good one.

Dr. Sights worked faithfully and was forced to sacrifice his profession to a certain extent in taking care of the burdensome duties that necessarily fall upon the head of the department. Dr. Sights showed his interest in the work during the smallpox epidemic here and worked night and day for weeks to check the spread. His fight against tuberculosis and other contagious diseases is now in progress and his successor should be one with generalship for the campaign against disease. The selection of a health officer is being awaited with interest, not only by those in the medical profession, but the public. The vacancy caused in the health board is to be filled by an election made by the general council at its next meeting.

The board of health is composed of the following: Drs. C. H. Brothers, H. P. Sights, C. L. Kidd, J. G. Brooks and Messrs. L. D. Sanders, W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., and James P. Sleeth. Dr. Sights leaves July 1 to take the superintendency of the Asylum for the Insane at Hopkinsville, to which position he was recently appointed.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ivy, at 609 South Sixteenth street this morning, a fine girl baby.

PORTER CHARLTON ADMITS THAT HE MURDERED WIFE

Was Found on Steamer Arriving Today, Broke Down Under Questioning.

Details Why and How He Did
The Deed.

HIT HER WITH A MALLET

Hoboken, N. J., June 23.—Arrested when the liner Prinzess Irene from Mediterranean ports, docked here today, Porter Charlton, the accused murderer of his wife in Italy, broke down, after being subjected to the third degree by the police and admitted he committed the crime. The police were notified by wireless that a man of Charlton's description was aboard. He admitted the identity immediately on his arrest, but denied he killed his wife at Lake Como, but under questioning he confessed.

He dictated the following statement: "My name is Porter Charlton, I am 21, and my home is in Omaha, Neb. I am a bank clerk by profession. I lived happily with my wife, who was the best woman in the world to me, but she had an un-governable temper; so have I. We quarreled frequently. She used vile language to me, the meaning of which I am sure she didn't know. On the day I killed her, she had cursed me, and I told her if she did it again I would fix her. Again she swore at me, and I was in a daze. I struck her with a mallet with which I was fixing a couch. I thought she was dead and stuffed the body in a trunk. I threw the mallet n after her. That night, after 12 o'clock, I dragged the trunk to a pier near Moltrasio and threw it in to the lake. The following day, I left Lake Como for Genoa, where I boarded the Prinzess Irene, four days later."

The body of Mrs. Charlton was found in Lake Como by fishermen June 7, in the trunk, while pulling in their nets. A few minutes after his arrest, at police headquarters, Charlton was facing a loaded revolver in the hands of Captain Scott, of the United States coast artillery, a brother of the dead woman. Scott was disarmed before he had time to shoot. Charlton had made a complete confession and admitted he killed his wife in a fit of temper and threw her body into Lake Como. He exonerated Constantine Ispoloff, the Russian, held for a time as a suspect. Charlton was arraigned in police court, and said he had no defense and wished to make none. The state department at Washington was notified.

Charlton booked passage on the steamer as Jack Coleman, Omaha. He first denied his identity when four officers and Capt. Scott burst into his cabin. At headquarters he admitted he was Charlton and said he "might as well tell all."

Right from the start the tailenders went after Paducah yesterday, and as a result Paducah lost to Hopkinsville 4 to 1. The Indians had a slightly changed lineup, and did not work together as well in fielding, while Woodring refused to allow them but three bingles. On the other hand, the Hopkinsville team swatted out six safe hits and there is the reason for the victory.

Cox was on first, but the tall, lengthy first sacker was not in condition to play his best article of ball. Block was switched from first base to third sack, and did fair work, since he claims not to be an infielder, but essays to be a catcher. Lockhart was about the only Indian with his eye on the ball, and as he drove out two safe raps. Lyons, the visitors' center fielder, banged out two safeties for Hopkinsville.

Woodring was in good form and whipped 'em over the pan in the style that used to make monkeys of the Indians in the old Kitty league. Up to the ninth inning the Indians were blanked, but in a rally one score was found before the Hoppers closed the brakes so tight.

In the first Hopkinsville started the scoring. Lyons was given a pass and stole second. Flanagan struck out and Anderson went out. Tidwell to Cox. Lynch singled to center garden and Lyons scored. The second was added in the third inning. Lyons started by singling over second. Flanagan bunted and Lyons was out with the assistance of Overton and Tidwell. Anderson was safe on a spill by Vonadore. Smith rolled one to Block, who threw high to Vonadore in an effort to force out Anderson. Vonadore caught the ball, but was off the sack, and the sphere was not returned to Overton before Flanagan scored. Bambrugh ended the inning by popping out to Angemeier.

Two scores were added by Hopkinsville in the seventh inning. Woodring hit one over shortstop's head. Lyons hit to Tidwell, who rushed the ball to Vonadore for a double, but the second baseman dropped the froeshide, while Woodring went on to third. Flanagan put a slow one in the infield and Woodring scored. Lyons was on third and on a throw to Block the runner was tagged out, but Mr. Smith did not have his glasses adjusted right and called him safe. The fans howled and threatened war. Anderson put the ball to Crain and Lyons scored on the squeeze. The Hoppers failed to make any more runs.

In the ninth the Indians pristed under the prospect of receiving a coat of whitewash. Vonadore was safe at first on a wide throw by Smith. Block hit to Crimmins, who threw to Anderson. On errors Vonadore scored, while Block reached second. Cox was an easy out to Bambrugh, while Mercer struck out.

"The Spirit of the Pioneer," His Theme

As Chautauqua enthusiasts will remember, Judge Stringer was the prime favorite of last season's Chautauqua; his repetition of "The Spirit of the Pioneer," which is accounted his best effort, comes in the nature of an encore, for it was enjoyed hugely by all who listened to it last season. Judge Stringer, though still a young man, is a deep thinker, who expresses his inspiring thoughts with a fluent charm which is irresistible. He's immense and there will surely be a crowd; you had best be one of them.

Tomorrow's Program

Afternoon, 3:30 p. m., Mr. Ash Davis, the Cartoonist, and the Castle Square Entertainers will divide honors. Mr. Davis' Chalk-Talks, as they have been called, are full of a quaint humor and ready wit, which is thoroughly delightful, and his cartoons are executed with such lightning-like speed and have such a wealth of "atmosphere" about them that you will be charmed as well as astonished. His caricatures are irresistibly funny, his landscapes gems of beauty. Don't miss Ash Davis' afternoon; it's GOOD.

In the evening, 8 p. m. the Castle Square Entertainers will render one of their most attractive programs—and that is saying a great deal, for they have won a warm regard from Paducahans in the short time they have been here. Male quartettes of exceptional musical merit are not so plentiful but that you will vote this one of the best entertainments you have ever enjoyed. From the classic to the popular, each number is a gem—and you'll like them fine.

GOVERNOR HARMON'S RE-ELECTION SURE

MR. ARMENTROUT WRITES ON OHIO SITUATION.

Sees Harmon a Big Factor in Presidential Race Two Years Hence.

HE HAS A GOOD RECORD

(L. V. Armentrout)

Mt. Vernon, Ohio, June 21.—
"With one of her sons in the white house and another in the state capitol a possible opponent of the first in 1912, national interest will center on Ohio politics this year, when Governor Harmon, Cleveland's attorney general, stands for re-election. He has a normal majority of over 150,000 against him, yet he won two years ago by a majority that few Kentucky Democrats could boast, while the state went against Bryan; and he has made a name in office that strengthens him as a candidate in his second race. He no longer pleads for reform; he is running on his record.

It is difficult to decide whether the Republicans in Ohio are hopeless of victory next fall or hopeful of defeat. They manifest all the sympathy of hopelessness; but none of its despondency. They expect Harmon to win; the tone of the state press shows it; the local politicians everywhere admit it in private and have the best governor who has occupied the executive office in more than one decade. If one doubts that Harmon is of presidential size, he needs only come to Ohio to disabuse his mind.

The Republicans, for one thing, lack a leader. When a state organization is summed up in the personality of one man, as the Ohio Republican machine was in Mark Hanna, and the dictator dies, all the initiative and cohesive force are destroyed. Such conditions do not develop material for a leader. Foraker and Taft are the only big men in the party. The former is discredited and the latter has no genius for practical politics.

This fact would give Harmon a wonderful advantage, should he, with the prestige of two elections to the chief magistracy of the state, oppose Taft, who was known before his election only by reputation to his own people, and whose only appearance in state politics was to denounce the Republican machine and turn Cincinnati and the state over to the Democrats.

It is no secret that Taft was cramped down, the throats of Ohio Republicans, and they never have warmed up to him. Only a brilliant finish to his first term, sufficient to arouse state pride, will give him the standing in popular affection that McKinley held. He did not rise the way other Ohio statesmen have gone to the front; through military achievement, like Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Garfield; or on the hustings and in local politics, like Mc-Kinley, Foraker, Sherman, the elder Harrison and others. He was a great judge and a great administrator, but the personal contact and the thrill of romance are lacking in his case.

Then, too, there have been two factions; Foraker men and Hanna men. That great body of voters, the nucleus of the Republican party in Ohio, the G. A. R.—no small factor in a state that furnished a quarter of a million soldiers—loved Mc-Kinley, and they cannot disassociate Roosevelt's elevation from the results of the catastrophe, which ended McKinley's career. Roosevelt was at enmity with both Hanna and Foraker. Taft is the protégé of Roosevelt, and, moreover, carried that new found doctrine of "political righteousness" to the extent of advising the defeat of the Republican machine. Consequently, those politicians, who felt personal loss as the result of a Democratic victory, don't like a single thing about the present national administration; while those who actually managed the Taft campaign in Ohio have since been discredited by revelations produced by Governor Harmon.

There is ruin everywhere, and herein Taft is blessed; for it saves him from rivalry at home.

Judge Brown, of Dayton, seems to have the call on the Republican nomination for governor. The Cox machine, of Cincinnati, which is said to have effected a coalition with Senator Burton, of Cleveland, for the undoing of Senator Dick, is for Brown; and everybody else appears perfectly willing to let Cox and Burton assume responsibility for the licking that is coming to the party, incidentally hoping they will defeat Dick and then turn to and rend each other. A Democratic senator from Ohio is not a remote possibility.

An automobile trip to this town, a once-day call on the million-dollar tuberculosis sanatorium, where a feast on 50-cent strawberries was being enjoyed at the state's expense, followed by a lecture on economy, is one of the stories, however true, that endears the business like Mr.
Harmon to the "common people."

He appoints Republicans to state boards some times, and unless conditions change more than they probably will, he should carry the state by from 30,000 to 50,000 next fall.

His election to the governorship, the first Democrat who ever succeeded himself in that chair, would make him the logical nominee for president, and if issues can ever be anticipated, he will most truly represent the probable attitude of Democracy in the coming presidential campaign. He is an old-timer in his theories; who believes in freedom of property rights and competition, the least authority in the federal government consonant with national safety, and the widest residential authority in the states.

Public spirited, patriotic, personally clean and officially the head of his own administration, he represents in his views the antithesis of that new school, of which President Taft, Gilford Pinchot, Theodore Roosevelt, Ellihu Root and Attorney General Wickersham are the most conspicuous exponents—that stands for centralized government, espionage of interstate corporations, the national administration of fuel and forest lands and water power sites and expanding national relationships. By that time it is to be hoped, President Taft, through his commission, will have the tariff properly revised and retired as a possible issue, so the next national campaign may be fought out squarely on the big question.

The Insurgent Republicans will not go with the Democrats in such a fight. The far west, where conservatism is unpopular, and the reactionary east might join the Harmon ranks. Progressive Republicanism that talks of a modified tariff based on actual and honest data, the regulation of commerce and control of resources in the interest of the masses, particularly the workers, is as far removed from old time Republicanism as it is from old time Democracy.

We shall hear much of Socialistic theories in the next campaign.

Your city taxes are due and should be paid at once to avoid the penalty. Attend to it today.

Kiowa, Kas., June 23.—There is an all summer job waiting for a man who can rid this town of ants.

The ants have become a menace.
They have moved into houses, infestating pantries and damaging clothing. Becoming braver, they have attacked families while they slept.

So far the only sure method found for killing the insects is to pour boiling hot water into the nests. But the trouble is in locating the nests.

SODA FOUNTAIN TALK

In making our ice cream we use only the pure, rich, thick cream, the finest vanilla that money can buy, and granulated sugar. If we bought a richer cream, it would be too fat and churn into butter. You can test our ice cream by letting it melt, and the melted cream is as wholesome and good as can be.
We use no corn starch, no eggs, no gelatine, and no condensed milk in making our ice cream.
In a number of states the use of gelatine is prohibited by law. As gelatine is only refined glue, it has no food value, and is used simply to make the cream hold together. We see no use adulterating our cream in this way. We use no eggs, for the eggs are used to give it a thickness and a rich color that frozen milk would not have without the use of eggs. Corn starch is used only to adulterate, and we find no reason for its use at our fountain. Condensed milk is so very cheap that ice cream can be made with it at a cost of less than 50c gallon. For this reason the ice cream containing condensed milk is sold at a great many fountains. But our cream is not made of such material.

Daily Thought.

The reward of one duty is the power to fulfill another.—George Eliot.

We are still of the opinion that our county officials were able to take care of the situation and that the soldiers sent down by Governor Wilson were not needed.—Lyon County Herald.

That's what some fellows thought here a year or two ago, but we noticed the devilment didn't stop until the soldiers came.—Calloway Times.

The first aerial passenger ship made its first trip yesterday. It was built and manned by Count Zeppelin, the balloon expert, of Germany, and can make a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. It has a carrying capacity of twenty passengers. It is furnished in mahogany and is as luxurious as a Pullman. At one end it has a buffet, and, in fact, has all the conveniences of the usual first-class passenger cars on our railroads.

Lexington is very anxious for the commission form of municipal government and a committee of its most representative citizens has been chosen to plan a campaign of education for it. It is proposed to hold a vote on the question at the coming fall elections, and the committee will endeavor to teach the people the advantages of such a form of government. Paducah will be greatly interested in Lexington's experiment, as there is quite a deal of sentiment here for commission government, and it is an issue that will be presented to our people some day.

1909 COTTON CROP TWICE GOLD YIELD.

The annual report of the census bureau on the cotton crop of 1909, now being issued, reveals some interesting and illuminating facts in connection with the value of the great staple. The estimated value of the crop of 1909 is $812,000,000 compared with $681,230,000 for 1908, $799,960,000 for 1907, $721,650,000 for 1906, and $632,300,000 for 1905. The value of the crop of 1909 is $130,860,000, or 19.2 per cent. more than that of 1908, notwithstanding the fact that the quantity is 3,271,924 bales, or 24.1 per cent. less. Measured by its yarn producing quality and by the financial results to the growers, this crop is the most valuable ever produced. It is interesting to observe that the value of the cotton crop of last year is about one-half that of the corn crop of the country in 1909, as estimated by the United States department of agriculture, nearly $100,000,000 more than that of the wheat crop, and twice the value of the oat crop.

The world's production of gold in 1909 was the greatest ever recorded, amounting in value to about $400,000,000, but is slightly more than one-half the value of the American cotton crop last year. According to Bradstreet's report the total building expenditures for 1909 in 105 cities of the United States amounted to $857,530,669, or only about $45,500,000 more than the value of the cotton crop of this country. The

UREY WOODSON, STATESMAN MAKER

A feature of the program of the Kentucky Press association at Middletown this week was a paper, "Making Statesmen and Its Reward," by John D. Wakefield, the well-known Louisville newspaper man. He said:

"In order to discuss statesmen we should have a proper and definite understanding of what statesmen are and wherein they differ from other mortals. Webster says that a statesman is one 'versed in the arts of government, one especially eminent in political abilities.' The late speaker, Thomas B. Reed, gave perhaps the most accurate definition of a statesman when he said: 'A statesman is a dead politician.'"

The subject of "Making Statesmen and Its Reward" should have been assigned to some of the real Warwicks of the association. There are many of them among us. Some of them have managed even presidential campaigns, and it was not their fault because their men did not get in. One of our most distinguished members, Mr. Urey Woodson, has come nearer to the distinction of being a real maker of statesmen than perhaps any member here. It is useless to take the time to figure up exactly how many millions of votes Parker and Bryan got beat, but we are all for Mr. Woodson because in both those memorable campaigns he demonstrated his powers as a claimer, and every political party must have a good claimer. Mr. Woodson enumerated some eighteen doubtful states that Parker was sure to carry. He didn't carry a one of them. Therefore we love Mr. Woodson and console ourselves that we have among us one who never gives up and is always on the job making statesmen right up to the last minute even value of the cotton crops of the five years period ending with 1909, is $3,548,230,000, while the value of the five years period ending with 1899 is $1,529,500,000. The cotton growers were in a distressed condition financially when the crop of 1899 was sold at an average price of 4.9 cents per pound. Their independence really began with the price of 12.2 cents per pound in 1903. During the last five years the price of lint cotton has averaged about 11 cents per pound, or about $55 per bale, and the value of the cotton seed has increased from $13.80 per ton in 1906 to $27.70 per ton in 1909. The value of a 500 pound bale of cotton, including the value of the seed, was $84.31 this season, compared with $50.37 for 1904, and with $30.22 in 1898. To the producer of a crop of 20 bales, this means that whereas he realized $604 in 1898, he received $1,686 in 1909, which increase, notwithstanding a greater cost of production at the present time, measures the difference between a mere existence and a comfortable and independent living.

DIEMENSE SWAMP TO BE DRAINED NEAR HICKMAN.

Hickman, Ky., June 23.—On the Missouri shore, a few miles above Hickman, the territory adjoining the Mississippi river levee has been accumulating rain water for several years until about 7,000 acres of land are under water. By permission of the government authorities this has been cut and the water is being drained from these lands. This will enable crops to be made on some land that has been out of cultivation for several years. Much of this land is in timber and it is said that much of the timber has been killed by the standing water. It is believed that the sanitary conditions of this section will be improved after this water is drained off.

though he may see an avalanche of votes ready to engulf him. We also know that if Roosevelt hadn't so many votes Mr. Woodson's prediction would have worked out just like a mathematical problem.

As a political writer and correspondent for nearly fourteen years engaged at the seat of our state government and at the nation's capital, it has been my privilege to know quite well many of our latter-day statesmen and to count as my friends many men who have made statesmen. Practically all the members of this association are older than myself, and many of them have had equally as many opportunities to observe public men as I have had. Doubtless their judgment is more mature than mine and their discriminating powers may be more accurate than mine.

However, my observation has led me to believe that there is very little difference between a politician and a statesman.

Statesmen are nothing more nor less than very successful politicians. A man who is not successful in politics cannot become a statesman.

Not infrequently a thwarted statesman degenerates into the worse type of a politician.

The process of evolving a politician into a statesman is sometimes quick and sometimes slow, depending of course on conditions and also on how good a politician the subject be in the first instance. The average politician can be satisfied. His hunger for place can be satisfied. He is quite willing to concede that there are other men in the party who must be recognized and that if he can't get the whole loaf he will go on home with the half loaf and wait his turn.

TO THE PUBLIC

The Chautauqua association of Paducah desires to express their appreciation for the liberal support it has received at the hands of the public.

Since its first organization, its sole aim and object has been to provide the most entertaining programs, regardless of expense, and as an evidence of our success we point to the fact that we have brought before Paducah people some of the most celebrated and high-priced platform lecturers of the country.

The Chautauqua week is now half over, and the balance of the week contains some of the most entertaining, as well as expensive numbers on the program. Already the program committee is negotiating for talent for the next season, believing that the citizens of Paducah will support them by increased patronage each week.

The Chautauqua belongs to the people; the price of season tickets is placed within the reach of every one. The benefits and advantages to be derived from attending these lectures are inestimable.

Tonight Judge Lawrence B. Stringer, one of Illinois' most gifted sons will deliver his lecture, the subject being, "The Spirit of the Pioneer." Aside from being a speaker of national reputation, Judge Stringer is one of the most famous jurists of the state of Illinois. Friday and Saturday offers a most attractive program, especially Saturday evening, in Robert Parker Miles' splendid lecture, entitled "Tallow Dips." Sunday afternoon, in addition to the elegant musical program, for the first time the noted blind senator from the great state of Oklahoma, Senator T. D. Gore, will be heard in his great address, entitled "Social Duties." Senator Gore is one of the strongest public speakers of today, because he is a living example of what an American citizen can accomplish, he being handicapped from infancy with blindness.

The Chautauqua association believes in the future of Paducah, its people and its future success, and with the assistance of its citizens' liberal support both in attendance as well as receipts the Chautauqua of next season is assured success. The program for next year will be, if possible, even more attractive, and likewise more expensive. Come out and enjoy the rare musical and literary treats offered for the balance of the week, and try to make this meeting of 1910 a most pleasant as well as profitable Chautauqua.

Respectfully,
Paducah Chautauqua Association.

TEXAS FIRST BALE.

Expected to Arrive at Houston Today.—It is Early.

New Orleans, June 23.—Among the telegrams put forward by the bears in the local cotton market today was one from Houston, announcing that Texas' first bale of cotton this season would arrive at Houston tomorrow.

Texas' first bale is always the first bale of the cotton belt, and much sentiment is usually attached to the marketing of it. This year the bears are making much of the comparatively early arrival of the first bale, after the intense cold late in the spring, but the bulls say that it cannot be taken as an indication that the reports of the general damage by the cold snap were exaggerated.

SOON WE SHALL ALL BE FLYING

CURTISS SAYS MACHINES WILL RIVAL RAILROADS.

Chicago, June 23.—"Flying machines will be improved and will be made economically useful in the future, so that they can be employed for passenger and freight traffic, much as railroads are used now. I recall the beginning of the railroad and how utterly insignificant it was when the first locomotive, with its funny coaches, hobbled along the insecure and imperfect tracks. We cannot do it all in a day, you know, but it will be done in time."

Glenn H. Curtiss, inventor and aviator, was the speaker, and delivered himself of this hopeful prophecy as he sat at a little table in the side lobby of the Hotel LaSalle, where he registered Monday for a few hours he had to spend in town on his way from Louisville to Minneapolis.

"We will develop slowly," he went on. "We will gradually add to the power, the scope, the size, the activity and the safety of the flying machine. Many minds will come together in the improvement of the machine and the method of using it, and in the end man will be as much the master of the air as he is now of the land and of the water."

Mr. Curtiss said he was in favor of allowing a pretty free hand to the entrants in the New York-Chicago flight in the matter of details, such as the number of times the flyers will be permitted to stop. The aviator took luncheon with John C. Shaffer, the Chicago backer of the flight, who rounded him on the wishes of the practical flying man in the matter of conditions.

"Conditions must be made reasonable," said Mr. Curtiss "for there can be no race at all. I think that the backers of the flight understand that, and will do the right thing. Under proper conditions I have no hesitancy in promising that three or four of our machines will enter. Hamilton, I know, is enthusiastic."

Baseball Dope.

"Brumfield, a twirler who made quite an impression with Indiana university this season, is to be given a trial by Manager Nairn either in today's game or in tomorrow's. He is said to have a wonderful slow ball and to be a promising twirler. Brumfield was in uniform yesterday and looks to be every inch a twirler. He is about the same size as Clyde Goodwin, of the old Kitty league team, and if anything is a little larger than Johnson, who is now catching for the locals.

"After Saturday of this week all teams in the Kitty must be reduced to 12 men exclusive of a playing manager. The salary limit, including the salary of the non-playing manager must be cut to $800 per month. Bridges, of the Clarksville team, is the only non-playing manager in the league and it seems to be a certainty he must either begin playing or salaries will have to be cut pretty deep as Clarksville is now much above the limit. The other three teams are hoping he begins playing, as his work when the team was last here was a joke and consisted mostly of attempted umpire baiting and scorer baiting." Vincennes Capitol.

REPORT ON COST OF LIVING WILL ABSOLVE THE TARIFF.

Senate Committee Hopes to Convince People That They Never Before Were So Prosperous.

Washington, D. C., June 23.—The Republican majority of the senate, which has been investigating the cost of living, will submit its report within a day or so. It will convince the people, whatever may be the view they themselves entertain, that never were they so prosperous. It is true that prices have gone up, but wages have gone up, too, even in a greater proportion.

The tariff will be covered with a coat of whitewash so thick that a miner could hardly get at it. It will be shown that the cost of articles imported has decreased 1.7 per cent since 1900. Attention will be called to the fact that in other countries revision of the tariff has been followed by an increase in the price of imports.

How well the people at home who produce and sell things have prospered is shown by the statement that the increase in the cost of domestic articles has ranged from 1 to 111 per cent. The highest increase is on oats. Beef has increased 45 per cent in ten years.

METROPOLIS WANTS DAY ELECTRIC SERVICE AT ONCE.

The growth of Metropolis has reached a point where there is an imperative demand for a daylight electric service, says the Tribune.

The service could be utilized in various ways. Many of our business houses would install fans. Electric motors would take the place of the steam and gasoline engines. We believe the service could be put on a self-sustaining basis.

The forthcoming annual report of the water and electric light committee will show approximately a revenue from these sources of $11,000. This does not include the service furnished the city and various other beneficiaries. Including these the power plant has an earning capacity of about $15,000.

At the beginning of the fiscal year now closing an appropriation of $7,500 was made for the maintenance of the power plant. To this has been added $2,248.84 for improvements. These improvements, in connection with the faithful and efficient work of Mr. Schafer, the new superintendent, are shown in the remarkable betterment of the service.

Including this extra cost of maintenance, the earning capacity of the plant has run ahead of its expenses. It is a profit paying investment, and emphasizes the fact that public utilities, when owned and properly managed by the public, are a public blessing.

BOY LOCATES MAN.

Youth Who Wrote to Gaynor Recently Does Clever Work.

New York, June 23.—Thirteen-year-old Samuel Litwin, of 81 Tompkins avenue, wants to be a detective. He went on his first case a few days ago, and yesterday was directly responsible for the arrest of Henry Metzler, 64 years old, accused of annoying young girls.

Litwin, about a month ago, wrote to Mayor Gaynor, asking how he could become a detective, and was told he would have to "undergo a civil service examination and get on the list."

A week ago he heard that Capt. Enright of the Vernon avenue station, was seeking a man charged with annoying a number of young girls. Meey complaints were received, but the police were never able to locate him.

A few days ago Litwin sent a written report to Capt. Enright, in which he told just where the man could be found. Detective Bradley and Connolly were put on the case, and discovered that the boy had pretty well covered every detail. They arrested Metzler. Magistrate Harris, in the Gates avenue court, held him in $2,000 bail for further examination.

Have you paid your city taxes yet? The penalty goes on soon, you know, and you might overlook this matter. It would be best to look after this today.

In the vicinity of Florence station yesterday there was a splendid rain, although the shower did not extend to Paducah. From the reports the shower was general in that section of the county.

RAIL TEAMS MUST REDUCE PLAYERS' LIST.

By Saturday all of the Kitty league teams will be reduced to 12 players exclusive of the manager of the team. This morning Crain, who has twirled some good ball for the Indians, asked for his release, and it was granted. Crain's arm is sore and he will return to his home in Sparta. With the release of Crain the Indians are within the number, and no more releases will be necessary in order to fulfill the requirements of the league.

This afternoon a double header between Paducah and Hopkinsville was called. Gwin was selected to do the twirling for Paducah, and he may pitch both games, provided he holds the Hoppers down in the first game. Otherwise Payne or Lockhart will be called on to do slab duty. Demaree will pitch the first game for Hopkinsville, while Yon will throw 'em in the second game.

With the release of Crain Payne will be called into the box regularly. Williams returned to the game this afternoon and will hold down third sack, while Tidwell will remain at shortstop. Block will catch the second game this afternoon.

France Takes Measures to Increase the Birth Rate.

Paris, June 23.—A series of measures designed to stimulate the birth rate in France was introduced in parliament.

They include the imposition of additional military service upon bachelors over 29 years of age, making obligatory the marriage of state employees who have reached the age of 25 years, with supplementary salaries and pension allowances for those with more than three children and the repeal of the law requiring the equal distribution of estates among the children. The dislike of Frenchmen to divide their property is a frequent cause of restricted families according to those who have made a study of the subject.

The proposed explanation follows the recent publication of vital statistics which showed that the births in the republic during 1909 were 770,000 against 792,000 in the preceding year and that the population has been increased by only 3,000,000 since 1851.

FINDS VACCINE FOR TYPHOID.

Prof. Vincent Announces Discovery Before Paris Academy.

Paris, June 23.—Prof. Vincent last night announced before the Academy of Medicine the discovery of an effective anti-typhoid vaccine, which he prepared by steeping typhoid bacilli in a weak solution of water and sodium chloride (common salt), with an admixture of ether.

The professor made a number of experiments with animals, which after being vaccinated withstood subsequent inoculation with typhoid germs.

He then vaccinated 13 persons, an examination of whose blood after the operation showed that the vaccine possessed to a high degree properties destructive of the typhoid bacillus.

Further experiments demonstrated that typhoid bacilli, when placed in contact with the serum of the blood taken from the person vaccinated, lost all vitality.

Home of Jeff Alcock Burned. Mayfield, June 22.—The residence of Jeff T. Alcock was almost completely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Mr. Alcock and family had just finished eating dinner and were in the front part of the house when they discovered that the whole rear end of the house was enveloped in flames. The fire is supposed to have originated from the kitchen flue. Nearly all of the household goods were saved and those that were saved were more or less damaged by water and smoke.

Mr. Alcock, when asked by a Messenger reporter, stated that he did not know the extent of his damages, as he had some insurance, but not enough to cover the property which was destroyed.

"You folks used to have a justice out here who was noted for his vindictiveness toward scorching automobilists," says the visitor to the suburbanite. "What's become of him? Has he retired from office?"

"No," explained the native; "but you see, he saved enough from his fees last year to buy himself a roaster."

Don't overlook your city taxes and have to pay the penalty. Better see after this today.

TEDDY, JR., TRIES TO TRAVEL

Innocent, But he and Bride are Discovers in Chicago.

Chicago, June 22.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and bride registered at the Congress hotel here today as "William Throop Rogers and wife, Philadelphia," but the newly-wedded husband eventually admitted his identity.

A tall lowan who came on the Pennsylvania special with the bride and groom, was responsible for the discovery of the identity of the pair.

"Know who that couple is?" he remarked to the clerk, as Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Jr., were moving away.

"Sure; William Throop Rogers and wife, Philadelphia, suite B-13."

"William Throop your grandmother; that's T. R., Jr., and better half. I came on the same train with 'em, and she didn't call him Bill—she called him Theodore."

Reporters could not obtain an answer from room B-13, nor could they locate the couple about the hotel. Presently a telegram was received stating that the directory of Philadelphia does not contain the name "William Throop Rogers." Then the assault was renewed on the "Rogers" suite.

For half an hour, despite repeated rappings on the door, there was no reply. Then a young face, lit up by a prodigious grin, projected itself through the slightly opened door.

"I'm Roosevelt, all right," he capitulated, "but I can't talk to you now."

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Jr., are on their way to San Francisco, their future home.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said: 'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

GIVES OFFICERS SLIP IN TEXAS

THE MAN THOUGHT TO BE WENDLING ESCAPED.

Louisville Detective Believes There
Is Doubt of His Identity
Anyway.

NO REQUISITION FILED YET

San Antonio, Tex., June 23.—A man thought to be Joseph Wendling, wanted for the murder of Alma Kellner, of Louisville, was located a few days ago on a ranch eight miles from San Antonio, but when Chief of Police Ellis, of Houston, Tex., Deputy Sheriff J. H. Long, of this county, appeared at the place last night they found the man had skipped the day before.

The three officers are now scouring the country toward Mexico, believing the suspect headed for the border. Ellis and Carney came here yesterday armed with a requisition for Wendling. After a conference with Chief of Police Van Dippel and Sheriff Lindsay, the officers talked over the matter with Deputy Sheriff Long, who stated he knew where the man answering the exact description of Wendling had been working for some weeks. It was on what is known as the Dullin farm, eight miles out.

Yesterday afternoon late, Ellis, Carney and Long went out in a rig. Inquiry at the Dullin farm revealed that the suspected man had remained intelligence from some source and had suddenly disappeared. Then began a search for him which is lasting throughout today. Neither Ellis nor Carney had returned to the city up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the sheriff believes they must have a keen trace of the fugitive.

SOME DOUBT EXPRESSED

As to Whether the Man Found in Texas is Wendling.

Chief Lindsey announced this morning that there was some doubt as to whether or not the man under surveillance was Wendling.

"Chief Ellis, of Houston," said Col. Lindsey, "has a reputation of being a careful and conservative officer, but in spite of this fact he may be wrong in his man. The wires he has sent this department were filled with the spirit of complete confidence and seemed to leave no doubt of the suspect being the missing janitor of St. John's church, still the old sage says, 'there is many a slip between the cup and the lip.'"

The information which has been spread all over the country to the effect that Wendling has been located in Texas has not stopped police officials in other parts of the country from working on the case. In this morning's mail Chief Lindsey found telegrams and letters from police and detective departments informing him that certain men were being watched who closely answered the published description of Wendling.

It is definitely known that Chief Ellis came into the information which has taken Capt. Carney to Texas through a Frenchman, who stated that he had positively identified Wendling. Col. Lindsey said this morning that he did not know the name of this Frenchman, who is said to be in Houston awaiting the return of a man supposed to be Wendling to that place.

There are two diverging stories concerning the unnamed Frenchman who has "turned up" the suspect on the Texas ranch. One account has it that this Frenchman recognized Wendling on a train, and the other is that he worked with him on the ranch and knew him well. It is not known whether Chief Ellis has ever seen Wendling or not. The story that Wendling was recognized on a train while coming into Houston is the most plausible, because had a farm hand recognized Wendling he would have gone to the San Antonio police with his suspicions as it is so much nearer the ranch as which Wendling is supposed to be than Houston.

The man whom Capt. Carney and Chief Ellis are after is not named Wendling. If it turns out to be Wendling then he is going under an assumed name for reasons of his own.

No Requisition Asked.

Austin, Tex., June 23.—Governor Campbell is still without information as to the issuance of requisition papers for a man supposed to be Joseph Wendling, or as to whether he is in Texas at present.

San Mateo, Cal., June 23.—Mrs. Bertha Spielhagen, a leader in local society, was attacked by five bulldogs belonging to her husband.

Mrs. Allen heard the dogs snarling in a rear yard. She found them fighting and tried to separate them. All five turned on her and mangled her so that her condition is grave. The flesh was torn from her right shoulder, her right hand and forearm were bitten, and torn, and her limbs were lacerated.

DREAM REVEALED
$90,000 IN GOLD.

Mountaineer Says He Found Rich
Treasure in Cave.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 23.—Thomas L. Rodgers, of High Point, N. C., has published a statement to the effect that he recently found $90,000 in gold coin in what is known as the Rock House Cave, on the Clinch river, in Hancock county, Tennessee.

Rodgers states that the information that such a sum of money was in the cave was revealed to him in an impelling dream. As he relates it, he went from his North Carolina home to his childhood home in Hancock county to explore the cave, and with a lantern made the exploration alone and found in a large chamber, many feet from the entrance, an upturned kettle, under which was stacked the gold.

Around the old kettle were found rusty bayonets, canisters and other things indicating that the cave was used as a place of refuge during the Civil war. Beside the kettle was found the skeleton of a man, and upon a slate stone slab near by was an inscription telling of the gold and directing the finder to take charge of it upon condition that he bury the body of the owner in a designated spot on the summit of the mountain in which the cave is located.

Rodgers says he complied with the terms of the inscription and left the cave with the money in his possession.

EIGHT HOURS

Constitutes a Day's Work on State Contracts.

Frankfort, Ky., June 23.—Eight hours is the legal limit of a day's work on state contracts or sub-contracts, according to the decision of Judge James Breathitt, attorney general, who gave his construction of the new law regulating state labor.

The question came up at a meeting of the capitol commission in connection with the work now going on on the grounds. The contractor wanted to work his men nine and ten hours as a day's work, and has been making nine hours a day. Under the opinion of the attorney general he cannot work longer than eight hours without paying for overtime. The commission notified him that under the new law, fixing eight hours as a day, he would have to work only that length of time. Judge Breathitt holds that the law applies to sub-contracts as well as contracts and to all who do work for the state.

OHIO IMPROVEMENTS HELP RIVER TOWNS

BOOM IN BOATING CIRCLES IS ALREADY NOTED.

More Boats Are Being Put in the Trade Anticipating Business Revival.

THE OHIO VALLEY EXPOSITION.

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—Although the greater portion of the improvements in the Ohio river authorized by congress for the creation of a nine-foot stage of water the year round has not yet been begun, the anticipated benefits of this tremendous undertaking, calling for an outlay of approximately $60,000,000, are already being taken advantage of. The Louisville and Cincinnati Packet company, which operates a line of boats between Cincinnati and Louisville, and also has subsidiary lines, has added to the scope of its operations by purchasing two additional boats, which will be placed in service between Louisville and Evansville, thereby giving continuous daily service under one management from Cincinnati and way points to Evansville. The officials of the company are free in saying this amplification of their operations is due directly to the anticipated revival and the greatly increased volume of river traffic which is certain to result from the improvements now being made and authorized.

Another earnest of this anticipated boom in river traffic is found in the diligence which various Ohio river communities are showing in the Ohio Valley Exposition, which will be held in Cincinnati from August 29 to September 24, and which is designed principally to exploit the industries and products of the Ohio Valley and the South. Portsmouth, Ohio, for instance, has secured 1,700 square feet of exhibition space at the exposition for the display of her industries, the manufacturers of that bustling city being convinced that Ohio river improvements, together with such prestige which the city will receive from this exposition and other sources, will make Portsmouth one of the most important cities on the Ohio river.

Speaking of the benefits of a perpetual navigable stage of the Ohio, Hon. Albert Bettenger, vice president of the Ohio River Improvement association, said: "With uninterrupted navigation the year round, the Ohio valley from Pittsburgh to Cairo, eventually will resolve itself into one continuous line of factories."

S.S.S. OLD SORES

Every old sore is an infected spot on the flesh, kept open by constant drainage of impure blood into the place. One of the principal constituents of blood is plasma, a healing property. Where the circulation is pure this element of the blood, which is of a glutinous or sticky nature, performs the necessary work in healing all sores, wounds and lacerations. It does this by sticking or joining the parts together, while nature causes a knitting of the tissues and solidifies the place.

This healing property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but become a source of irritation and disease to any open sore or ulcer on the body. Constantly it discharges its morbid matters into the place, and gradually it causes the infection to spread, and the sore enlarges. The morbid matter in the blood from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, disease germs in the system, the retention of the refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a constitutional state of the system, inherited blood, etc., are usually responsible.

S.S.S. heals sores and ulcers the very simplest way. It just goes into the circulation, and removes impurities and polluted matter, the means of keeping the ulcer open, then the sore is bound to heal. S.S.S. the greatest of all blood purifiers, not only does it cleanse the circulation but it adds every necessary property to it to promote good health. It is of the very greatest tonic value, and those who have been weakened and run down by the constitutional drainage of an old sore will find it the very remedy needed.

S.S.S. does not simply cause a scab to come over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue and filling in the place with firm, healthy flesh. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Supply Blooms Even to the Poorest.

New York, June 23.—Flowers are a necessity of life and should be brought within reach of the poorest, believes John D. Crimmins, a wealthy philanthropist.

Mr. Crimmins is at the head of a committee urging the establishment of a city market where flowers will be sold at low prices.

"At present, persons able to buy flowers can obtain all they desire," he said, "but it should be possible for a poor child to buy a flower for two or three cents, or a wild flower for a penny."

REMOVAL OF QUARANTINE SOUGHT

BOARD TAKES MEASURES TO STAMP OUT SHEEP SCABBIES.

Frankfort, Ky., June 23.—Steps toward the removal of the quarantine against sheep, in part, and the ultimate stamping out of the disease entirely in Kentucky, were taken here at a meeting of the Livestock Sanitary Board, recently created by the legislature. The board declared a quarantine in this state, in conjunction with the quarantine of the national government, but it found that many of the counties in the state are not affected at all. These counties are exempted from the state quarantine, and the United States department of agriculture will be asked to lift the quarantine from the counties where the sheep are not affected by the scabies. At present the national quarantine applies to every county in the state, even though there are no sheep with scales in those counties.

Scabies is more prevalent in central Kentucky than in any other section of the state, says M. C. Rankin, commissioner of agriculture, who is chairman of the Livestock Board. He says there are many counties in eastern and also in western Kentucky where the sheep are not affected at all, and he and the Livestock Board want the government to lift the quarantine against the sheep in those free counties.

After the quarantine has been lifted from the counties which are free from the disease the state board will endeavor to reduce the number of affected counties. Regulations will be adopted providing for regular dipping and for the establishment of places where sheep can be dipped to comply with the national government's regulations. It is hoped that in this way the scabies can be stamped out and in a year or so every sheep that is now affected cured.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources

Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late."—Gilbert's Drug Store.

STANDARDIZING OF HIGH SCHOOLS URGED.

Interesting Paper Discussed by Kentucky Educational Association.

Henderson, Ky., June 23.—"Standardizing and Accrediting Our High Schools" was the subject of an address by Dr. Arthur M. Miller, of the State University at Lexington at the morning session of the second day's meeting of the Kentucky Educational association, and was the feature of the session. He recommended the principles of the Carnegie standard system and advocated the appointment of state supervisors of High schools of the state. Superintendent T. J. Coates, of Richmond, presided during the morning session. The subject of Dr. Miller's paper was discussed by Superintendent McHenry Rhoades, of Owensboro, and Prof. O. L. Reid, of the Male High school at Louisville.

Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, of the Girls' High school at Louisville, ably discussed the paper of Dean E. G. Payne, of the Eastern Normal school. The subject treated on by this paper was "The Value of Educational Material in the Light of a Right Aim in Education."

MUCH BITTERNESS
Developed in Cantrell-Thomas Race For Congress in Seventh District.

Lexington, Ky., June 23.—Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell arrived here from Frankfort today and held a conference with his friends. Following the conference he issued a signed statement in answer to Senator Thomas' speech here last night and the affidavit of James S. Darnell, ex-mayor of Frankfort, read by Mr. Thomas. He also goes after the Burley Tobacco society in his statement.

Cantrell says he expects to make one more speech before the primary Saturday, when he will tell some things about his opponent and the Burley society, backing them up with documentary proof. The speech will probably be in Lexington.

What Everybody Ought to Know.
That Foley Kidney Pills contain just the ingredients necessary to tone, strengthen and regulate the action of the kidneys and bladder.

Don't overlook your city taxes and have to pay the penalty. Better see after this today.

Look at the Companies Behind Your Fire Insurance

A few weeks ago, in a very nearby town, one of the most prominent merchants lost his entire stock of goods by fire. He was fully insured, he thought.

When time for settlement came however, he found the one company in which he had the biggest insurance, was insolvent, BROKE, and the loss wiped the merchant out of business.

MAY GRAND JURY RETURNS 3 INDICTMENTS.

Mayfield, Ky., June 23.—The grand jury returned three indictments Wednesday morning, and from the number of witnesses that have been before that body for the past two days it looks like the jury is doing a big business.

Lewis Wallace, of the Symsonia section, was indicted on the charge of detaining Alice Summerville against her will.

Elias Burgess was indicted on the charge of willful murder. He is the negro from St. Louis who killed Finas Tucker, colored, at the latter's home several weeks ago. Burgess is in all, having been held without bond.

An indictment was returned against Rollie Miller for common nuisance.

Bloomer Bailey, furnishing liquor to a minor, was fined $50 on confession.

Arthur Carr confessed to trespass and was fined $20 and costs.

A hung jury resulted in the case of Jim Harris, charged with furnishing liquor to a minor.

SCARED INTO SOUND HEALTH.

Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress."—Gilbert's Drug Store.

Friday Will Be Clover Day at

Rare Bargains Await You

Why Clover Day? What does it signify? In what way does it imply to the selling of merchandise? Tradition tells up that the finding of a Four Leaf Clover is a symbol of good luck and is supposed to bring happiness, joy and beautiful blessings to the person fortunate enough to secure one of these good emblems. We have applied this same idea to a special event which we have arranged for our Friday business. You will find Four Leaf Clover BARGAINS all through the store; arranged and designated by a Four Leaf Clover sign. One Friday each month we will run this Clover Day Bargain event through the summer, making it signify in a material way the same good fortune to purchasers as the Four Leaf Clover does in a superstitious way. Come down and enjoy the Clover Bargains; there will be many not quoted here. LOOK FOR THE FOUR LEAF CLOVER SIGNS.

QUINCY WALLACE IS PROMOTED

MADE FOREMAN OF I. C. CAR DEPARTMENT.

Succeeds Thomas Bennett, Who Resigned to Join Great Western Railroad.

NEWS OF RAILROAD FOLK.

Quincy P. Wallace has been appointed foreman of freight repairs of the car department of the local Illinois Central shops, succeeding Thomas Bennett, who resigned to accept a position with the Chicago Great Western railroad. The appointment of Mr. Wallace is satisfactory to the large number of employees. In order to accept the position as foreman, Mr. Wallace resigned the position of chairman of the joint protective board of the Illinois Central system of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen. He served one term as chairman, and at the last session was re-elected as chairman. Mr. Wallace has been an active worker for the benefit of the carmen.

As chairman of the board Mr. Wallace is succeeded by O. L. Sanborn, of Council Bluffs, Ia., who was the vice-chairman. G. L. Dry, of Carbondale, Ill., was elected vice-chairman. The appointment of Mr. Wallace was effective today, and was made by N. A. Alquist, master car builder, with the approval of Master Mechanic J. F. Walker.

Personals.
Perry Gillard, a bridge carpenter, was brought to the railroad hospital yesterday afternoon. Gillard was working at Krebs when he cut his left foot with an adz. The wound is not serious.

Mr. A. F. Blaess, roadmaster of the Louisville division, was in the city today on business.

The Machinists' Helpers union will meet tonight at the Central Labor Union hall.

That the day is rapidly approaching when all railroad passenger cars will be of the all steel type of construction is indicated by an announcement made yesterday by the Pennsylvania railroad system that it now has in service on its lines or on order nearly 2,000 passenger cars built entirely of steel.

The present all steel equipment includes 457 coaches, 22 dining cars, 34 passenger and baggage cars, 33 baggage, 78 postal and 80 Pullman cars. The cars under order or being constructed include 502 coaches, 23 dining cars, 83 passenger and baggage cars, 83 baggage, 39 postal, 28 baggage and mail, 1 combination motor car and 529 Pullman cars.

The Pullman company is delivering steel sleeping and parlor cars to the Pennsylvania railroad at the rate of from 50 to 60 a month.

Each of these cars weighs some 118,500 pounds, against 85,000 pounds in the standard vestibule wooden coach, the increase in weight greatly reducing the vibration of the car and adding to the comfort of passengers. A central box girder 24 inches wide by 15 inches deep, extending throughout the entire length of the coach, makes the car non collapsible, and in collisions, prevents telescoping. As there are only about 125 pounds of wood in a car, used for window frames and arm rests, the car is considered fireproof.

Will Contest Berth Rates.
The Pullman company has no intention of submitting quietly to the reduction of its rates by the interstate commerce commission and has not yet exhausted its legal weapons to prevent the commission's reduced rates going into effect in the north-west on July 1, although the commission has refused to stay its order pending a rehearing.

Attorneys for the Pullman company will hold a conference today with those of the St. Paul, Santa Fe and Great Northern railways, who are also affected by the commission's order, and will probably decide to renew the Pullman company's application to the federal circuit court for a preliminary injunction. Although Judge Grosscup, Seaman and Baker declined to grant the injunction on the first hearing, the suit was not dismissed, and it is proposed to make a new application in view of the position taken by the interstate commerce commission that it would grant a rehearing only after the rates had been in effect a few months.

St. Clair, an act full of ginger. They are both well known song writers, who entertain in a comedy singing, talking and dancing act. There is not a dull moment while their act is on. The other two acts will consist of the Gued Monon in a mystic act, which is wonderful and pleasing, and Lorraine and Dudley, a comedy duo in a splendid sketch full of laughter. Two reels of motion pictures will also be given and the ever popular Frank Long with a new song. Admission 10c, children 5c. Two shows in the afternoon and two shows at night.

News of Theatres

At The Kentucky.
The Kentucky has a new vaudeville program to offer the patrons for the balance of the week, starting with this afternoon matinee. It is a novelty program and one of merit. Kelter, the European bounding wire performer, has one of the few acts of similar nature. The McNutts will present a comedy novelty act. Carbett and Forrester are well known comedians and have a comedy sketch that was built for laughing purposes only and is full of singing, dancing and witty repartee. The Kentucky scope will unveil something of an interesting nature, that is new in the moving picture world, and Mr. Nees will sing a couple of new ballads.

At The Star.
The change of program for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Star theater is headed by Lloyd and Judge Stringer tonight. Paducah's Favorite Chief Attraction at Chautauqua Tonight.

Hon. Lawrence B. Stringer, of Illinois, will be the speaker at the Chautauqua tonight at 8 o'clock, and a capacity attendance for Judge Stringer is exceptionally popular with Paducah people and his lecture, "The Spirit of the Pioneer," is accounted one of the most brilliant efforts of his distinguished career. Judge Stringer always knows any subject he approaches thoroughly and his talks are delivered with a telling force and a fluent charm which never fails to delight his audiences. "The Spirit of the Pioneer" is nothing short of inspiring and will be enjoyed to the full by all who hear it.

Tomorrow's program, too, is an extra good one, for in the afternoon Ash Davis, the imitable cartoonist-lecturer will be the attraction. Although a stranger to Paducah, Mr. Davis' fame as an entertainer has preceded him in good measure and a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon is assured those who avail themselves of the opportunity to see and hear him. His marvelous work with the crayon is not approached by anyone else on the American platform, attempting anything similar. His caricatures are irresistibly funny, his landscapes are gems of beauty. The Castle Square Entertainers will also appear in the afternoon, but it is not until the evening performance at 8 p. m. that full opportunity to hear a complete program will be given.

To those who have attended today's session, the Castle Square Entertainers will need neither introduction nor endorsement, for their really artistic work delighted the large audience at the afternoon session. This splendid male quartette is accounted a head-line feature on all the big Chautauqua circuits of the country and their work, from the classic to the popular, is delightful.

WHAT A SUMMER COLD MAY DO
A summer cold if neglected is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Do not neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Tar promptly. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold from the system.—Gilbert's Drug Store.
